Mary C. Huff represents clients in separation, divorce, and other domestic relations matters in Northern Virginia, the District of Columbia, and Maryland.

Mary utilizes a client-centric approach, knowing that people want their individual needs met and solutions for their unique family situations as they navigate the legal process. Family law matters are deeply personal and often involve challenging moments. Mary provides skilled, empathetic, and results-driven representation. Mary tailors her approach- whether in negotiation, mediation, or litigation- to best serve her clients' needs.

Mary practices in all areas of family law including divorce, child custody, child support, spousal support, modification actions, termination actions, appeals, protective orders, retirement orders, grandparent visitation, appeals, and the drafting and negotiation of various agreements, including prenuptial agreements or premarital agreements. Mary is comfortable resolving matters through all legal avenues to deliver the right results for her clients.

Mary understands that high-quality legal representation can be accessible and efficient. She has structured her practice to deliver exceptional advocacy while considering the value of strategic, results-driven representation. By streamlining processes and prioritizing practical solutions, Mary helps clients navigate complex family law matters effectively and efficiently.

Mary is admitted to practice law in Virginia, the District of Columbia, and Maryland. Continually recognized by her peers, Mary has been named in Best Lawyers in America and in Super Lawyers for Virginia and the District of Columbia.

Mary is an active member of the Fairfax County Bar Association, currently serving as the Family Law Section Co-Chair and a moderator of continuing legal education seminars. Mary previously served as a Director of the Young Lawyers Section, volunteer coordinator for the annual Fairfax Law Foundation 5K Race, the chair of the member of the Virginia Trial Lawyers Association, the Virginia Bar Association, the District of Columbia Bar Association, the Women's Bar Association of the District of Columbia, and the Montgomery County Bar Association. Mary currently serves as the Chair of the firm's charitable outreach committee.
