Legal Malpractice Defense

We understand that a claim of professional malpractice against a lawyer is always a matter of utmost concern to the lawyer against whom the claim has been made.

Our experienced team has represented lawyers and their firms, large and small, for years and understands not only the legal framework of these difficult cases, but also the emotions which often erupt when former client is pitted against attorney. We have also represented both lawyers and insurance carriers in matters relating to professional liability insurance coverage, so we understand the coverage issues that can be at play in the background of any legal malpractice case.
